CPYT Condolences

Several of our members attend Kings School, Winchester.

This week, a very much-loved and highly thought after teacher, Mrs Bamford passed away on the school site. A huge amount of credit must go out to the students who did all they could to help in such a tragic situation.

On behalf of everyone at CPYT, we send our love and condolences to her family, her friends and colleagues, students at King's especially our own members.

All groups continue to work on their material for this production and things are already starting to sound and look great.
